I have a Bachelor of Science degree from Seton Hall University, a nationally accredited institution and a Masters in Science in Psychology from California Coast University (CCU) which is accredited by the state of California and the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC). DEAC was established in 1926 in Washington, D.C. and gained approval of the U.S. Department of Education in 1959 giving CCU access to all government tuition programs as well as the G.I. Bill. CCU credits and degrees are recognized for promotion, assignment and position qualification standards within the U.S. Military and Federal government. The Masters program that I completed required 36 credit hours for completion.

As a Registered Psychotherapist, I am regulated by the Mental Health Licensing Section of the Division of Professions and Occupations. The State Board of Registered Psychotherapists can be reached at 1560 Broadway, Suite 1360, Denver, Colorado 80202.

I consider myself an Adlerian Psychologist and use techniques to help neutralize self-defeating patterns. The techniques I employ the most are Neuro-Emotional Technique (NET), which I have used since 1990 and Emotional Freedom Technique (EFT), which I have used since 2001 and Optimal Emotional Freedom Technique (OEFT), an upgrade to the original technique, since 2017. Before with technique is employed, an explanation will be given so that you understand the procedures. All sessions are 50 minutes or 10 minutes before the next hour. If you arrive late, the session will still end at the regular timed the charge will still be for the full session. There are no set amount of sessions as each individual is different and unique. You may seek a second opinion or stop care, or transfer to another therapist at any time.

In a professional relationship, sexual intimacy is never appropriate and should be reported to the board immediately. This prohibition also lasts for the two years after care is completed.

The information provided by the client during a therapy session is legally confidential, in accordance with CRS 12-43-218 except for certain legal exceptions and will be identified by me, if any such situation should arise during a therapy session.
